

Broken Walls and Carry the Cure Report on Unalakleet, AK

Broken Walls joined Carry the Cure for an outreach in Unalakleet, AK this past weekend. This community has faced difficulties lately and Broken Walls and Carry the Cure wanted to encourage and bless them.

On Thursday January 24th, there was a time of worship and prayer led by the Broken Walls / Carry the Cure team for the community. On Friday January 25th, the team presented a community concert.

Jonathan shares: "We did a concert last night to a full house in the Auditorium here in Unalakleet. Many people responded to a call to have Jesus in their lives. This community has had some very difficult times and it has been a privilege to come here and share the message of the love of Jesus. After the community gathering, we were invited to join in a traditional meal of salmon, moose stew, muk tuk and a variety of other local delicacies! It is wonderful to reconnect with the pilots Mike and Joel from MARC aviation."

On Saturday morning, Bill led a clinical version of the Carry the Cure program to those interested in going deeper in the prevention of suicide. In the evening, we presented a community concert. On Sunday morning, Broken Walls led worship and shared at the service in Kenai Bible Chapel.

This was an amazing trip! The people responded to the love of Christ and the message of hope. The team included Carol Sullivan, Mariya Manalli, Charis Erhardt, Nick Bruckner, Katie Daniels, Joshua Maus, Jonathan Maracle and Bill Pagaran, and pilots from MARC.

One of attendees posted this on her facebook page: "So many people were blessed here, so many! People are still talking about it today. Wherever I go, people tell me how they were touched and how God moved. Then at church this morning, one of the village leaders stood up and told about the impact that you guys made on our village. Thank you so much and God bless you all!"

Thank you to everyone who helped make this outreach possible. Thank you for your prayers and your financial support. We can't do this without you.
