

Broken Walls visit the Klamath Tribes

Broken Walls and Carry the Cure travelled to the Klamath Tribes of Chiloquin, Oregon for ministry this past weekend. Matthew Fairchild from Belleville, Ontario accompanied us as bass guitarist for this trip.

When we arrived on Sunday July 22nd, we were soon busy with set-up and sound-check followed by a social gathering with our hosts, Chief Don Gentry and his wife, Mary. It was a wonderful time of relationship-building over a great meal followed by a time of prayer.

On Monday July 23rd, we did our 'Committed to Life' suicide prevention assembly which Bill leads, to the community members and leaders who were truly inspired by the presentation. Bill always does a great job and everyone shouted with Bill at the end "I commit to life" with great enthusiasm.

Then we headed to the High School to set up and prepare for the evening community concert. This date was booked unusually late so there was a lot of work for our hosts to do to get the word out. The turnout surprised us all. We also had the honour of having our host, the very gifted Chief Don Gentry join us on guitar.

When I made a call at the end for those who wanted to give their lives to Jesus, I was blessed to pray for dozens who rose as I sang "Rise Up Mighty Warrior."

Bill shares: "Great response to the Good News! It was a powerful time of worship, sharing, dancing and more! People cheered, cried (joy and repentance) and responded to the Lord! I had many opportunities to pray for healing, blessing and release into their ministries. The coolest thing for me was that I got to pray for a whole family ... 4 generations! I thank the Lord for all that He did in people's hearts."

This was a great introduction to the region and we look forward to our return. Bill and Matt returned home while I continued north to do a solo event at Providence Church hosted by Rae and Perry Evan. Then I will be participating at the Wiconi Family Camp and the Richard Twiss Memorial Pow Wow in Turner, Oregon.
