

Dear friends:

I want to begin by thanking you for partnering with Broken Walls with your support and your encouragement during this difficult time. We are so grateful for people like you!

The whole team is finally back home after our busy tour in Belgium. We saw so many great things happen, and we were warmly received in the schools and the Belgium community at large. We did a session at the US Embassy by invitation. The presentation was attended by staff and leadership of the Embassy. We did protocol, songs and stories, then opened for questions and answers. It was a very intimate setting and I am so glad that we had the chance to carry the message of God's love and peace delivered within the beauty of First Nations' culture and music to these gracious people of influence. We have been invited back to the US Embassy next year and could get invitations to other Embassies as well. Our hosts, Mark and Gabrielle, their sons, John and Thomas as well as our friend, Marguerite, were so kind and generous to us in so many ways. Our team worked tirelessly with the mandate of carrying the love of Jesus. I am so proud of everyone.

Our final performance was to a full-house in Brussels. The people were so excited and participated with great enthusiasm. Hundreds of people did the Friendship Dance with us. It was a beautiful time.

Here are some words from one of the attendees that were sent to one of our hosts. "Thank you for coordinating all this and for assisting in getting the message out. The performance was AMAZING! I have been asked to work on bringing Broken Walls and Carry the Cure back for next year. This was one of the most moving performances I have seen in such a long, long time."

We now have our new album available both in cd and USB formats. If you wish to make a purchase, they are $20.00 each plus shipping.
